DON SWARTZ, LOYOLA TACKLE, VOTED PLAYER OF YEAR IN SO. CAL. "AAAA" FOOTBALL FOR 1963

FOR RELEASE: MONDAY, A.M., DECEMBER 30 and after
 DO NOT RELEASE PRIOR TO DEC. 30 a.m.

Loyola High School, champion in "AAAA" Division Southern Section CIF football for the second straight year and supplier of the "Player of the Year" for 1961 and 1962, added another star to a long list representing the school when the Helms Board of Football named Loyola's fine lineman and tackle Don Swartz "Player of the Year" in "AAAA" Southern Section football for 1963. Coach Mario DiMuro was most concise when he credited Don Swartz with making the Cubs' single wing offense go over the past two years. "A good blocker on offense and strong on defense", is the way coach DiMuro put it.

Last year, "Player of the Year" honors went to Loyola's Steve Grady. The year before it was Paul Horgan. Both were strong tailbacks. Some 18 years ago another fine Loyola back, Al Pollard, was named the top player in the Southland in consecutive seasons...1945-46.

It is most unusual to have a lineman win "top" player honors. In 1960, Santa Barbara center-linebacker Jim Murphy won the Helms Board selection narrowly. You have to go back to 1950 and Charlie Powell of San Diego High to find another lineman named for the honor. Charlie was an end and went directly to the San Francisco 49ers, where he performed for many years.

As indicated above, Loyola wound up champions of the "AAAA" Division of the Southern Section of the CIF for the second consecutive year. In marching to their second straight crown, Loyola defeated the likes of Santa Monica (21-12), Pasadena (27-14), Long Beach Wilson (10-7), and El Rancho in the finals, 21-0.

Don Swartz will be recipient of the Helms medal award, recognizing him for having been named "Player of the Year" for 1963, at the 27th annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 18, at 10:30 a.m. Don will also have his name engraved upon the Paul H. Helms Trophy which is permanently housed at Helms Hall, Los Angeles. All players named for All-Southern Section, CIF honors will be presented with framed scrolls, while coach Mario DiMuro will receive the traditional silver tumbler award for having coached his Loyola Cubs to the title.

Twenty-two schools are represented on the three-team selection with title-winning Loyola placing four players. Runner-up El Rancho landed three, as did Long Beach's Poly and Wilson. Two players were named from Santa Monica, Muir, Redlands, Santa Barbara and Anaheim.

The only repeater off last year's team is Santa Monica center-linebacker Rich Bassler. Mike Bergdahl, fine Loyola tailback who broke all records previously set by Cub tailbacks Horgan and Grady, was the only lower classman (junior) named to the first team. Big Whittier end George Buehler was the lone junior on the second team, while backs Gene Washington (Poly, LB) and Eddie Saenz (Santa Monica) are the third team juniors.

Those players named for "Player of the Year honors in year's past follow below:

VOIT RUBBER COMPANY OF LOS ANGELES TO AGAIN PRESENT FOOTBALL AWARDS...

As it has so graciously done over the past 15 years, the Voit Rubber Company will present each honored Southland football player a special Voit football award. Loyd Tudor and Mell Barton of the Voit Company will be on hand at the 27th annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program to make the presentations to the honored athletes.

This year's program will be held at Helms Hall on Saturday, January 18, at 10:30 a.m. Honored athletes, coaches and former stars of the game will be on hand to take part in the festivities.

ART GOLDEN (ALEMANY), PAUL MARGUGLIO (ST. FRANCIS) AND ANDY HERRERA (SANTA CLARA)
NAMED FOR HONORS IN SO. CAL. FOOTBALL IN '63

FOR RELEASE: TUESDAY, A.M., DECEMBER 31, and after

 DO NOT RELEASE PRIOR TO TUESDAY, DEC. 31 a.m.

Helms Athletic Foundation's All-Southern California Board of Football expanded its selections in 1963, naming teams in both "AAA-AA" and "A-Small School" Divisions. Prior to 1963, the Board had selected teams in only "Large" and "Small" Schools divisions. In announcing its decision to name not only the major or "AAAA" teams, but also two separate teams from lower divisions, the Board felt a more even distribution of players could be made. Plus the fact, of course, that more boys would have the opportunity of being honored.

It was a co-Player of the Year selection in the "AAA-AA" Division, as Alemany's Art Golden, superlative QB-HB combination, and Paul Marguglio, "AAA" Champion St. Francis tackle, received recognition. Art Golden was named to the 2nd "Small Schools" team in 1962. Golden led his Indian teammates to victory over "AAA" champion St. Francis during the regular season and was an offensive ball of fire the entire season. Marguglio was coach Jack Friedman's top player on the St. Francis team, which marched through West Covina (18-0), Claremont (27-19), Santa Ana Valley (6-0) and La Mirada in the finale, 7-0.

The Board cast a near-unanimous ballot for Santa Clara QB ace Andy Herrera as "A-SC" Player of Year. 156 points for the season in leading the Saints to the "A" Division title. Santa Clara whipped Glenn 46-0, Mission, SLO, 19-6, and Coachella, 19-14, the latter in the playoff finale. Herrera accounted for nine TDs in the three playoff games.

Brea-Olinda, which placed 2 players on the "AAA-AA" Teams along with St. Francis, won the "AA" Division championship. Brea defeated Thousand Oaks (13-12), Buena (27-0), and Santa Paula (21-7) in the title game.

Lutheran High, which led all schools in placing players on the "A-Small Schools" Division teams with three, defeated Desert (43-0), Bishop (12-6) and Rim of the World (40-12) in the finals.

All three players of the year -- Art Golden, Paul Marguglio, and Andy Herrera will be recipients of the Helms "Player of the Year" medal awards at the 27th annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, Jan. 18, at 10:30 a.m. All players named for honors, plus coaches and special guests from the world of football will be on hand to pay tribute to this year's crop of fine players.

Along with scrolls and medals for the honored players, silver tumbler awards will be presented to the four championship coaches of each division. Jack Friedman of St. Francis (AAA Champs), Glen Hastings of Brea-Olinda (AA Champs), Lou Cvijanovich of Santa Clara (A Champs) and Eugene Oetting (Small Schools) of Lutheran will be receiving the traditional silver tumbler awards.

Repeaters on the "AAA-AA" Division team are Alemany's Art Golden and St. Monica's Richard Havel. Both boys were second team selections in 1962. On the "A-Small Schools" Division teams just one boy is back from last year's selections. End Jim Young of Lutheran is the lone repeater.

All players named to the "AAA-AA" Division teams are seniors, while three boys on the "A-Small Schools" teams will have another year to gain honors. Dennis Steenbergen, Nogales tackle, Brian Kirkpatrick, Rim of the World quarterback, and fullback Marv Paolini of Mission, SLO, should all be top candidates for all-star team honors in 1964.

Some thirty-nine Southland high schools are represented on the two "division" teams this year. Not only will players receive beautiful framed scroll awards in recognition of their achievements, but their high schools will be recipients of duplicate awards for their trophy room or trophy case. Small Schools division "Players of the Year" follow below:

ALL-LOS ANGELES CITY FOOTBALL TEAM HEADED BY BIRMINGHAM'S MARV ADAMO FOR '63 SEASON

FOR RELEASE: SATURDAY, P.M. DEC. 28 and Sunday a.m.

 DO NOT RELEASE PRIOR TO SAT. AFT. DEC. 28 !!!

Marv Adamo, two-time All-Los Angeles City first team end and leader of Birmingham High School's championship line, was a unanimous choice as "Player of the Year" when members of Helms Athletic Foundation's All-Los Angeles City Board of Football met to name their annual All-City Teams. It is interesting to note that Marv Adamo is the first lineman to be named for "Player of the Year" honors since another pair of fine ends shared this distinction back in 1957. On this occasion it was Jim Bates of Manual Arts and Bob Livingston of L.A. High who shared honors.

As expected, City Champion Birmingham led all other teams in placing players on this year's All-City eleven. Six representatives from coach George Goff's Braves were named, three of them on the first team. Runner-up Los Angeles, Polytechnic, Van Nuys, Gardena and Fremont each placed three players on the honor teams.

City Champion Birmingham compiled an awesome record during the 1963 campaign and Marv Adamo led the Braves' line, one of the most fierce aggregations to come along in years. The Braves averaged 42½ points in six league encounters, blanking five teams in the process. Coach George Goff made it quite clear he considered his star end the finest football player in the valley this season. The Helms Board considered him the best in all of Los Angeles for 1963.

For having been selected the top player in Los Angeles City football for 1963, Marv Adamo will be honored, along with all other all-star team members, at the 27th annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program. Awards will be presented to the honored players at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 18, at 10:30 a.m. Framed scroll awards will be presented to each city player and special medal awards will be given those players named for league "Player of the Year" honors.

Never failing to score less than 24 points per game -- and on five occasions tallying twice that many or more -- Birmingham had only slightly more difficult a time in the City playoffs. East-Valley champ Van Nuys, second highest scoring city team which had averaged 32 points per contest, was blanked by the Braves in the first playoff round, 48-0. Marine League champion Gardena fell to the Braves' tomahawk in the semi-finals, 38-27, and Southern League champ Los Angeles put up a stiff battle before falling 21-14. In the three playoff games, Birmingham averaged 36 points to the opposition's 14.

Seventeen Los Angeles City high schools are represented on the 1963 All-Los Angeles City honor teams. Four players were named for honors for a second year. As previously indicated, Marv Adamo is on the first team for the second straight year. Tackle Jack O'Malley from Banning was a second team choice in 1962. Tony Kochinas of Lincoln and Hollywood's Dann Boyd, second team members this year, were on the third eleven in 1962.

It appears that backfield strength will be apparent next fall. Four junior backs were named to the all-star teams, while two linemen were picked. Three quarterbacks -- Steve Sogge, Rick Purdy and Craig Schusterick -- will be around in 1964, as will Gardena fullback Jim Lewis. Fremont center, Al Proctor, and Garfield end Tom Georgino will also have another shot at All-City honors.

Gardena High School, Marine League champions for 1963 and semi-finalist in the City Grid Playoffs, placed four players on the all-loop first eleven and four on the second, as teams were released today by All-Los Angeles City Board of Football. Jordan High, mathematically tied for the title with Gardena at 4-1, placed two players on the number one team.

Coach Stan Smith's fine junior QB, Steve Sogge, was selected as the top performer in the league for 1963. Sogge completed 61 of 90 passes for a 68% completion mark during the league season. Following two playoff games -- Gardena defeated Lincoln 39-12 and lost to Birmingham, 38-27 -- Steve brought his completion total to 87 out of 137 for a 64% mark. He threw for 20 touchdowns during the year.

With Gardena and Jordan on top in league play with 4-1 efforts, Narbonne and Banning came next with 3-2 records and Carson, 1-4, and San Pedro, 0-5, drew up the rear.

Five players repeated from last year's all-loop elevens. Jack O'Malley, Vern Loveridge, Dennis Loveridge and Jim Lewis were named on the first team last fall, while Ken McDaniel was a second team selection in '62.

There were four juniors named to the first team and Gardena full-back Jim Lewis, who was a top choice last fall as a sophomore, may be one of few city players to make all-league first team honors three years running, since he will have another season in '64.

"Player of the Year" selection Steve Sogge will be presented with his special Helms medal award at the 27th Annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday, January 18, at 10:30 a.m. All-Los Angeles City and All-Southern California CIF awards will be presented to the all-star teams at this time. All-League players will receive scroll awards and these will be mailed to the coaches at their respective high schools.

Coach Winston Tucker's East-Valley League champion Van Nuys eleven, placed five players on the all-league team and ace fullback Jon Huss was acclaimed "Player of the Year" for 1963, as members of the All-Los Angeles City Board of Football met at Helms Hall to make their annual gridiron selections.

Ted Calderone's Polytechnic team finished the league season with the same record as Van Nuys and placed two players on the first team and four on the second.

Huss at 6-feet and 185 pounds, is described by his coach as "A fine runner, blocker and pass receiver and defensive standout...with great desire." Jon scored 84 points during the year. He was on the first all-league team last year as a junior.

Van Nuys' Rick Purdy is the lone junior on the first team and should really be something to watch next year. He's 6-ft, 1-inch and 205 pounds. Lower classmen on the second team are sophomore Richard Knapp of Grant and junior guard Bob Glasgow of Monroe. Three players repeated off last year's league teams....Ben Samuel and Richie Chirco having been second team members in '62 and the aforementioned Huss repeating on the first.

League standings showed Van Nuys and Poly tying mathematically for first place with 5-1 marks; Monroe, 4-1-1; San Fernando, 3-3; Grant 2-3-1; North Hollywood, 1-5; and Sylmar, 0-6 is the way the league closed the season.

For having been selected as the East Valley's top performer for the 1963 grid season, Jon Huss will receive a special Helms "Player of the Year" medal award at the 27th Annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday, January 18, at 10:30 a.m. Framed scroll awards are presented to all players named for All-Los Angeles City Team honors. Scrolls are also sent to those boys named for all-league honors.

Versatile quarterback-halfback Dann Boyd of Hollywood High, an All-City choice in 1962, was a unanimous choice as "Player of the Year" in Western League football for 1963, it was announced today by the Helms Athletic Foundation's All-Los Angeles City Board of Football.

It remained for Westchester High to walk off with most of the positions on the first all-league team, however, as five of coach Bill Young's stalwarts were selected for honors. Hollywood, finishing in a dead heat with Palisades for second, placed three players on the first team.

Dann Boyd, who performed at two positions for coach Lou Birnbaum at Hollywood, scored 78 points during the season, among the league's best records. Boyd received overwhelming support from league coaches as the league's top back.

Other repeaters on this year's All-Western eleven are Carl Winslow, Dan Levy and Mike Tozzi.

Westchester ran off with the title for 1963 with a perfect 6-0 record, averaging 32 points per game in the process. Tightly bunched behind the winner came Hollywood and Palisades, 4-2; Venice, 3-3; University, 2-4; Hamilton, 2-4; and Fairfax, 0-6. Not only did Westchester do a remarkable job on offense in '63, the team's defensive record showed them allowing a mere 3 points per game. In the first round of the playoff, Westchester was beaten by Los Angeles, 41-13.

All-Los Angeles City Football Team selections have been made by L.A. City Board of Football for the past 26 years. Board members include Ralph Alexander (LA Herald-Examiner), Jeff Prugh (LA Times), Jerry Weiner (The Citizen News), Gayle Palmer (San Pedro News-Pilot), Wayne Wilson (Van Nuys News) Braven Dyer, Jr. (Secretary) and Bill Schroeder (Chairman).

All-League certificates will be mailed to coaches for presentation to the all-league selectees at their respective high schools.

Bell High School, Eastern League Champions with a perfect 5-0 loop record, led the way with five players on the first team as All-Los Angeles City Board of Football met at Helms Hall last week to make its annual gridiron selections. It remained, however, for crafty Art Arzate, coach Al Padilla's quarterback, to walk off with "Player of the Year" honors for runner-up Garfield High.

Arzate completed 85 of 158 passes for a 54% completion mark and scored on 12 TD flips. His total yardage was 1,302 and he boasted a 38.7-yard punting average. Coach Padilla makes no bones about rating Arzate a better QB all-around than last year's first team All-City choice from Garfield, Alex Sotomayor.

Both Ed Blanton and Dennis Carpenter are repeaters off last year's first team. Tom Woodson, Bill Collier and Steve Bustillos were named to the second team in 1962. Both ends, Glenn Carr of Bell, and Tom Georgino of Garfield, are juniors. There were also two lower classmen named to the second team.

Following Bell in the Eastern League parade to the wire, were Garfield, 3-1-1; Huntington Park, 3-2; Roosevelt, 2-2-1; South Gate, 1-4; and Wilson, 0-5. Bell bettered Jordan in the first playoff round, although the score was 0-0, and then was defeated by L.A. 26-7. Coach Bob Enger's Bell troops boasted one of the top defensive records in city play for 1963, allowing the opposition less than a touchdown average in five league encounters.

As has been done over the past 26 years, league players will receive special scroll awards for having been selected on the all-loop elevens. Art Arzate, 1963 Eastern League "Player of the Year" will be the recipient of a special Helms medal award for his fine play over the past year.

The 27th Annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program will be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 18, at 10:30 a.m. Honored guests will include coaches, past stars and press and radio personalities, along with the honored players.

Tony Kochinas, outstanding both offensively and defensively for coach Skip Giancanelli's Northern Loop title winners, was unanimous "Player of the Year" choice, when Helms Athletic Foundation's All-Los Angeles City Board of Football met at Helms Hall last week to make the annual gridiron selections.

The diminutive halfback -- 5'9" and 170 pounds -- was co-player of the year with teammate Tony Rosas in 1962. This year he won the honor alone. Tony scored 73 points during the year and led his mates into the playoff against Gardena in the first round, where they were defeated 39-12.

Lincoln landed atop the standings at season's close with a 4-1 record followed by Eagle Rock and Verdugo Hills at 3-2; Marshall, 2-2; Belmont, 0-3-1; and Franklin, 0-3-1. The Belmont-Franklin game was not played, which accounts for their 4-game record.

Outstanding flanker, Jesse Parral, only a junior this season, repeated on the first team from last year. He stands an excellent chance of being among the very few city players who have gained all-league first-team recognition three years....if he remains in good health in '64 that is.

All players named for 1963 all-league honors will be recipients of Helms Foundation scroll awards from All-Los Angeles City Board of Football. This board has made similar selections dating back to 1937.

Tony Kochinas, named "Player of the Year" on this year's All-Northern team, will receive a special Helms medal award at the 27th annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday, January 18, at 10:30 a.m.

All-Los Angeles City, as well as those players named for All-Southern Section honors in the CIF will be on hand to receive their scrolls on the 18th.

Coach George Goff's Birmingham Braves walked off with the Los Angeles City football title in 1963 and with it the majority role in the All-League lineup released today by Helms Athletic Foundation's All-Los Angeles City Board of Football.

No less than eight players received recognition on the first team with two additional players named to the second squad. Taft placed two of its players on the first eleven, while Reseda and Granada Hills landed one each.

The Braves made a shambles of the West-Valley League in 1963, amassing 265 points in league play for an average of 42½ points per encounter. Over the last five games, Birmingham blanked its opposition and allowed only 13 points to Cleveland during the league exercises.

In the playoff, Birmingham beat Van Nuys, 48-0, Gardena, 38-27 and Los Angeles in the finale, 21-14.

"Player of the Year" honors went to the Braves' 6-foot, 200-pound end, Marv Adamo. Coach Goff calls last year's All-City first team end, "The best football player in the valley....if not the city!" Adamo was picked, along with five of his teammates to fill six of the seven line positions on the all-league roster.

After Birmingham in the West-Valley League race came Taft and Reseda at 4-2; Granada Hills, 3-3; Canoga Park, 2-4; Cleveland, 2-4; and Chatsworth, 0-6.

Marv Adamo, Bill Hayhoe, Don McSwain and Mike Helwig are all repeaters from last season's all-league first team. Kent Wetzel, Gary Berthelton and Mike McConahey were second team picks in '62.

The 27th Annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program will be held at Helms Hall on Saturday, January 18, at 10:30 a.m.

* Named on 2nd team in '62

A pair of fine Southern League backs -- Carlton Kelly of Manual Arts and Willie Crawford of Fremont -- were named co-Players of the Year for 1963 when members of the All-Los Angeles City Board of Football gathered at Helms Hall last week to make their annual football team selections.

Positions on the all-league eleven were very evenly distributed and justly so, considering the fact the race for the title was so close. Both Los Angeles (4-0-1) and Fremont (3-1-1) placed four players on the first team, while Manual Arts (3-1-1) filled three positions.

Manual Arts' Kelly, at 6'5" and 195 pounds did a remarkable job at QB for Jim Blewett's Toilers. Coach Blewett was high in his praise. Kelly scored 48 points and his passing and defensive ability had much to do with Manual's fine record. Willie Crawford, among the city's speediest backs, was coach Frank Nobbe's ace. He scored 95 points during the year and was acclaimed by those coaches both in and out of the league as a top competitor.

Los Angeles High, winner of the Southern Loop title, went all the way to the finals in 1963, only to loose to Birmingham, 21-14, after a highly spirited ball game. L.A. had defeated Westchester, 41-13, and Bell, 26-7, prior to running into the Braves.

Three players are back from last year's second team. Norman McBride, Randy Key and Kelly are the repeaters. Only one junior was named to the first team, but he is an outstanding candidate. Center Alvin Proctor, who anchored the center of the Fremont line, will be back for another year under coach Nobbe.

All-league players, as they have done over the past 26 years, will be recipients of scroll awards recognizing them for their fine play during 1963. These scrolls will be forwarded to the coaches for presentation at the high schools.
